A DECADE OF EXCELLENCE OF EDUCATIONAL IMPACT AND ACHIEVEMENT

HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENT OF FADESREK ACADEMY

HUMBLE BEGINNING

Fadesrek Academy was founded on 4th July 2016 with a humble beginning as a crèche in a two-bedroom flat located at No. 30 Josephat Mojekwu Street, by Living Faith Church, Kubwa, Abuja. It was established due to its proprietress' passion to avail young children a nurturing environment where they could receive quality education from the earliest stages of life. The crèche opened with one pupil and two foundation staff, namely, Derek Monday and Victoria John and Comfort Ofonime respectively. These staffers indeed laid the foundation for the school's commitment to quality childcare and early childhood development.

When full academic session actually commenced on 5 September 2016, with an enrolment of eleven pupils, the academy evolved into a formal structured learning institution, causing it to assemble a formidable workforce front desk officer, five teachers, one security personnel, Mr. Efiok Obioefiok, one cleaner, Mrs. Rita Simon. There was also the engagement of Mr Steven Toor who provided consultancy services on the professional guidance leading to significant contribution to the school's early development. The available facilities at the time were modest, though they reflected the founders' determination to provide a conducive learning environment while remaining focused on their long-term vision.

The school's growth became evident within a short period. By 9 January 2017, enrolment had increased considerably with the admission of several new pupils, including Destiny Monday (Primary One), Jayden Ogoriba, Smile Ogoriba, Christabel Uwem, Osuagwu Prince, Toluwan Omodansi, and others. These admissions brought the total number of pupils to twenty-one for the 2016/2017 academic session, demonstrating the growing confidence of parents and guardians in the school's educational philosophy and commitment to excellence.

Guided by its motto, "The Future Starts Here," the institution continues to uphold academic excellence in addition to the new head of school Mrs Chichiebem Chibuzor who came in on 7th January 2019, with ideas and new innovations. Its mission has been "to discover brilliance in every child and transform lives through education," while its vision is "to give a solid educational foundation that will influence change in the world." All these ideals constitute the bedrock for our academic programmes as well as overall approach to nurturing children into responsible, knowledgeable, and confident individuals.

Challenges

In the 2017/2018, though still at the formative stage, it was still challenging for the institution to earn the confidence of parents within the community. Operating from modest facilities, the school's physical environment did not compare with the established schools around and this discouraged a lot of parents from patronising the institution. Thus, although there was a little improvement in the enrolment, it was slower than expected.

It is important to mention one of the memorable events that shaped the school's history. A child with speech and hearing difficulties was once admitted without proper screening. Inasmuch as the child did not exhibit obvious challenges, no entrance examination was also conducted at the time, giving every child an opportunity to learn. Discovering the child's condition later posed some challenge. The management of the school took up this challenge and saw it as an opportunity to demonstrate compassion, commitment and the transformative power of education. With persistent care, individualized attention, consistent classroom engagement, and unwavering faith expressed through continuous prayers, significant progress was made. In other words, the child gradually developed the ability to communicate. This success story reinforced the school's belief that every child possesses unique potential that can flourish when properly nurtured in a supportive and caring learning environment.

The school faced numerous challenges at the beginning. One of such was the initial failures to receive regulatory approval from the Quality Assurance Department (QAD). Rather than becoming discouraged, the management worked diligently to address the identified requirements. Following subsequent inspections by officials of the department, the school was granted site approval. This important milestone paved the way for the completion of all statutory registrations and officially positioned Fadesrek Academy as a recognised educational institution.

We also experienced challenges with respect to finance and school bus transportation. For instance, there were times at the formative stage that staff salary payment was irregular, resulting in negative attitude, poor performance and constant resignation from teachers. How much of agony experienced from different tax and levy collectors from government and non-government officials can we recount? An attempt to obtain a loan facility to develop one part of the school land was rejected by Zenith bank. In the same vein, my private car, which was converted to a school vehicle, broke down on the way several times; we escaped a kidnap attempt in one of such instances. We continued to face challenges with the transportation of our pupils until my husband's friend came to our rescue with a durable vehicle. Thanks to Mr Jerry Udzer whom I fondly call my second husband.

PROGRESS

Realizing some of the factors restricting its growth, the school management decided that expansion would not be anchored on expensive advertising campaigns, but rather through academic excellence and visible learning outcomes. This made it adopt a child-centred method of teaching, so that every child received learning based on their abilities and learning pace. It was along that line that jolly phonics instruction was introduced to children in early years which significantly improved pupils' ability to read, pronounce and communicate. These efforts produced remarkable results, which now made parents develop confidence in us, having observed development in fluency and intellect of their children. It was those achievements that now served advertisement purpose to attract new enrolments. At every opportunity, our pupils consistently reflected the values and academic excellence they had acquired, prompting many parents to make enquiries about the school.

Our academic programmes and staff are now stable as the school continues to expand. The issue of bus transportation is no more a challenge, and we now compare favourably with older institutions. We are happy to announce that, after a rigorous process, Fadesrek Academy secured approval for junior WAEC, and recently concluded examination for Year 9 students. With first four sets of graduands could not proceed in our facility due to lack of approval at the time. Currently, Mr Aniefiok Okon and Mr Paul Abah, as the Principal and Assistant Principal respectively, now head the management of the institution.

Our pupils have earned laurels at different competitions: we emerged first in a relay race competition at Bloomy Olive Preparatory School, Abuja; co-best performer in a ballet competition (tying with Premier International School, Abuja) that held at Barcelona Hotel, Abuja; and first and second positions respectively in the primary and nursery versions of Spelling Bee Competition held at Creative Kids Academy, Abuja. Indeed, our alumni in the United Kingdom (who graduated before our establishment of the High School) have been making us proud, winning scholarships and multiple awards.

To cap it all, our story is filled with vision, mission, poor beginning, perseverance, resilience and faith. From a humble beginning of a small crèche to its emergence as a fast-growing educational institution, the academy has shown that humble beginnings can be transformed into a lasting remarkable legacy of learning and character development through purposeful leadership, dedicated staff and commitment to quality education.

I give God all the Glory,

SCHOOL CONSULTANT CONGRATULATORY MESSAGE

FADESREK ACADEMY KUBWA FCT ABUJA AT TEN: A DECADE OF RAISING FUTURE LEADERS.

Ten years ago at Kubwa, F.O1. Abuja FCT. The vision of Fadesrek Academy was birthed. The school opened her doors with one primary goal. It was to create an environment where future leaders are emerged thereby bequeathing children with an education rooted in excellence, hardworking, discipline and the fear of God. Today in 2026, we celebrate a decade of promise kept.

From our first class on the 5th of September 2016 with a total attendance of five learners. The zeal and passion has remained the same. We have grown into a home of curiosity and character development. We have watched with delight our Nursery children migrate to Primary School and the Primary School children move to Secondary School leaders. We have seen teachers become mentors and facilitators and parents become partners and stakeholders.

Our classrooms have fostered academic growth and transformation. It has produced creative and critical thinking, collaborations, talents-discoveries and problem-solving capacity by our esteemed-learners. Our child-centered and child-friendly environment has remained unflinching. We have seen our classrooms hosting quiz competition, debate, Sporting events, music, Spelling bees and others.

However, the strength of Fadesrek Academy today is not just in the results. It is in the attention. It is the deliberate attention given to every aspect of the School system. To us at Fadesrek, smaller classrooms meant teachers knowing and interacting with the social, physical and psychological need of every child and also investment in ICT, Sports and arts give opportunities for learners to explore and discover their God-given talent which is at heart of success, accomplishment and fulfillment.

LONG LIFE NIGERIA, LONG LIFE FADESREK ACADEMY!!!

A DECADE OF EDUCATIONAL IMPACT AND ACHIEVEMENT

THEME: "CELEBRATING 10 YEARS OF EXCELLENCE, GROWTH, AND IMPACT."

Good day everyone.

Today is more than just a celebration of ten years. It is a celebration of vision, commitment, excellence, and the lives that have been transformed through quality education.

As we celebrate this milestone, we remember everyone who has contributed to our journey. We appreciate our founder, Mrs Esther Monday for their vision, our teachers for their dedication, our parents for their trust, our students for making us proud, and our alumni who continue to represent the values of this institution wherever they go.

Nelson Mandela wisely once said that: "Education is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world." Indeed, education has been the foundation upon which we have built lives, dreams, and futures. Another inspiring quote by Malcolm X reminds us that: "Education is the passport to the future, for tomorrow belongs to those who prepare for it today." For the past ten years, our school FADERESK ACADEMY has remained committed to preparing students not only for examinations but also for life. We have celebrated academic excellence, character development, creativity, discipline, leadership, and service to humanity. As Henry Ford once said that: "Coming together is a beginning, keeping together is progress, working together is success." To our students, remember these words from Walt Disney that:

"All our dreams can come true, if we have the courage to pursue them."

As we look ahead, we are inspired to reach even greater heights. The first ten years have laid a strong foundation. The next decade will bring greater innovation, stronger partnerships, and even more outstanding achievements.

Finally, let us continue to build a school where excellence is our standard, integrity is our character, and every child is empowered to become a positive influence in society.

Happy ten (10) Years Anniversary to our beloved school FADERESK ACADEMY!

Teachers ARTICLES

GREATER COMMITMENT

Teacher's greatest strength is not just knowledge, but commitment. Every extra effort, every encouraging word, and every patient moment helps shape the future. When teachers remain dedicated to lighting the path for others, they leave footprints that time can never erase.

Greater commitment. Greater impact. Brighter futures.

Mr Efiok

CCA Teacher.

EDUCATION AS AN ULTIMATE TOOL

Education is not just about memorizing textbooks or passing examinations, it is the ultimate tool for self-discovery and empowerment, to better one's self and the world at large.

One of the biggest hurdles students face, is the fear of failure. We often tell ourselves, "I am just not good at this subject".

However, education is about progress, not perfection. Embrace challenges as stepping stones rather than roadblocks. When you adopt a growth mindset, the belief that your abilities can improve through dedication and hard work, you stop viewing struggle as an insult to your intelligence.

So, in the end, you see it as a necessary part of the learning process.

By developing critical thinking and a growth mindset, at FADESREK ACADEMY, we transform our learning experience from a tedious chore into the foundation for a successful and purpose-driven future.

Abah Paul Ejeh

Vice Principal

EVERY CHILD LEARNS DIFFERENTLY: UNDERSTANDING INDIVIDUAL DEVELOPMENT.

Every child is unique and develops at his or her own pace. While some children learn certain skills quickly, others may need more time and support. These differences are a natural part of child development and should be understood rather than compared.

In the early years, learning goes beyond reading and writing. Children are developing confidence, communication skills, creativity, independence, and social awareness—qualities that form the foundation for future success.

Parents play an important role by creating opportunities for meaningful learning at home. Simple activities such as reading stories, singing songs, storytelling, counting everyday objects, and engaging in conversations can support a child's development while making learning enjoyable.

When we understand that every child learns differently, we focus less on comparison and more on growth. The goal of education is not to make every child the same, but to help every child reach his or her full potential.

By Davies Eno Sunday
Early Years Educator

EVERY CHILD MATTERS

One of the greatest privileges in life is the opportunity to teach. As educators, we do more than stand before a classroom and deliver lessons; we help shape minds, build confidence, and inspire dreams. Every child is special and possesses unique abilities waiting to be discovered. Some learn quickly, while others require more time and encouragement. However, every child deserves patience, understanding, and the chance to succeed. As teachers, it is our responsibility to create an environment where all learners feel valued, respected, and motivated to do their best.

Education is the key that unlocks countless opportunities. Through learning, children gain knowledge, develop critical thinking skills, and acquire values that prepare them for life. Beyond academics, schools help children learn responsibility, teamwork, discipline, and respect for others. The progress we witness in our pupils each day reminds us that teaching is a worthwhile investment. Every improved handwriting, every correct answer, every act of kindness, and every display of confidence represents a step toward a brighter future. I am grateful to be part of this noble profession and to contribute to the growth and development of young minds. As we continue this journey, let us remember that the seeds we plant today through education will become the harvest of tomorrow.

Together, with dedication, hard work, and God's guidance, we can help every child reach their full potential and become a positive influence in society.

Every child matters, every child can learn, and every child deserves the opportunity to shine.

Parent-Teacher Collaboration and Communication

Education is most effective when parents and teachers work together as partners. Built on trust, mutual respect, and open communication, this collaboration creates a supportive environment that promotes children's academic, social, emotional, and moral development.

Regular communication allows parents and teachers to monitor a child's progress, address learning or behavioural challenges early, reinforce positive behaviour, and boost the child's confidence through consistent support. Children benefit from improved academic performance, better school attendance, stronger social skills, and increased motivation to learn.

Parents can support this partnership by staying involved in their children's education, maintaining regular communication with teachers, and participating in school activities. Likewise, schools should encourage inclusive, respectful, and flexible communication through meetings, newsletters, digital platforms, and parent engagement programmes.

Although challenges such as busy schedules and communication barriers may arise, a shared commitment to the child's success helps overcome them. Ultimately, strong parent-teacher collaboration lays the foundation for raising confident, responsible, and successful learners.

TEACHING A CHILD HOW TO READ: GROOMING A GREAT READER

By EKEMINI EMMANUELEKPO

Every great reader starts as a child who was guided, not rushed. Reading is not just about letters on a page. It's about training the eyes, ears, mind, and heart to love words.

1. Start Before "A-B-C"

Grooming begins at birth. Talk to your child. Sing to them. Read aloud even when they don't understand. A child who hears stories daily builds a strong "language bank". The more words they hear, the easier reading becomes later.

2. Build Sound Awareness First

Before letters, teach sounds. Play games: "What sound does /b/ make? Can you find 3 things that start with /s/?" This is phonics at play. When a child can break words into sounds, blending becomes natural. Cat = /k/ /a/ /t/.

3. Make Books Friends, Not Tests

Surround the child with books at eye level. Let them touch, flip, and "read" pictures. Ask questions: "What do you think will happen next?" This builds comprehension from day one. Reading should feel like play, not pressure.

4. Blend Slowly, Celebrate Small Wins

Start with 2-letter blends: at, in, on → bat, cat, sun. Don't correct every mistake harshly. Clap for effort. A child who feels safe will try again. Confidence is the fuel for fluency.

5. Be the Model Reader

Children copy what they see. If they see you reading, enjoying books, asking questions about stories, they'll want to join in. Your voice, your excitement, your patience — that's the first classroom.

"Raise a reader, and you raise a thinker, a leader, a world-changer."

PARENTING IN THE 21ST CENTURY: THE VITAL ROLE OF PARENTS IN SHAPING CHILDREN'S FUTURE

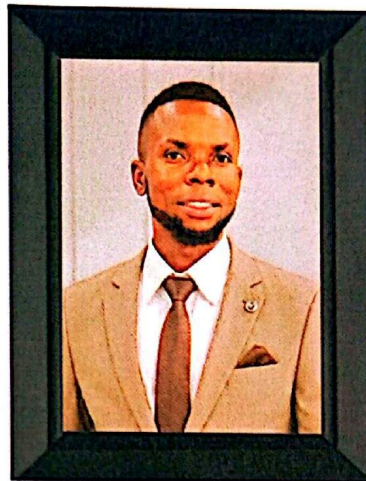

BY AONDO IORFA

Parents play a crucial role in shaping their children's character, values, and future. In today's digital world, children are exposed to many influences through technology and social media, making parental guidance more important than ever.

Beyond providing for their children's physical needs, parents must teach honesty, respect, integrity, self-discipline, kindness, and perseverance. Children learn these values best by observing the example their parents set.

A loving home with open communication, encouragement, and consistent discipline helps children develop confidence, resilience, and good decision-making skills. Parents should also support their children's education by encouraging good study habits, monitoring academic progress, and teaching essential life skills.

Ultimately, the greatest gift parents can give their children is not material wealth but love, strong values, wisdom, discipline, and guidance. These are the foundations for raising responsible, successful, and compassionate adults.

UNDERSTANDING ADHD: A GUIDE FOR PARENTS

BY CHIBUZOR CHICHEBEM

Attention-Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD) is a neurodevelopmental condition that affects a child's ability to pay attention, control impulses, and manage activity levels. It is not caused by poor parenting, laziness, or too much sugar.

Children with ADHD may be easily distracted, forgetful, overly active, talk excessively, interrupt others, or find it difficult to follow instructions and complete tasks. These behaviours can affect learning, friendships, and self-esteem.

ADHD is believed to result from a combination of genetic and brain development factors. With the right support, children with ADHD can thrive academically, socially, and emotionally.

Parents can help by maintaining a consistent routine, giving simple instructions, praising positive behaviour, encouraging physical activity, reducing distractions during homework, and working closely with teachers.

If these behaviours are persistent and occur both at home and at school, seek a professional assessment from a paediatrician, psychologist, or child psychiatrist. Early identification and intervention make a significant difference.

Although there is no permanent cure, ADHD can be effectively managed through behavioural therapy, parent training, classroom support, and medication when prescribed.

Remember: ADHD does not define a child. With love, patience, and the right support, every child can reach their full potential.
